

To Carlson Restaurants Worldwide Operations Team

Guys,

I just saw this yesterday in Steve Baliva's stores:

It is a cap (looks like a little witches' hat) that slides over the pour spout for storage at night. In those states where fruit fly violations are big, this is a big win. They come (1,440 to a case for around $98), well worth it!

Andy Simpson
Director of Franchise Operations
Carlson Restaurants Worldwide

NiteCap™